CABINETS BY HUGGY BEAR

Located in the beautiful Pacific Northwest, Huggy Bear Cabinetry has set the quality standard for handcrafted cabinets for over 25 years. Our foundation lies solidly in a rich heritage of excellent craftsmanship and keen attention to detail. With this in mind we have an intense dedication to creating the best kitchen and bath cabinets available.

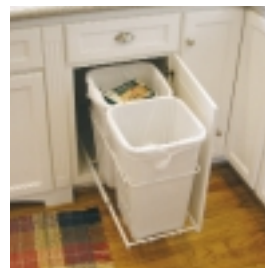

All Huggy Bear cabinets are built to your specifications and any customization is possible with the only limitation being the imagination of the designer. This means you get exactly what you want. Your one of a kind kitchen will be handcrafted just for you.

The quality of your kitchen is further ensured by our on-site lumber broker who sees to it that only the finest woods are used in your project. These woods along with a softly glowing, smooth-to-the-touch finish affirm the strength and durability that lies beneath. Huggy Bear Cabinetry consistently delivers unmatched workmanship to provide beloved kitchens and peace of mind to our customers for years to come.
